Our healthier nation: alpha for presentation, beta minus for deliverability

This is a bold document, in both the negative and the positive senses of the word “bold”. Sir Humphrey Appleby would have viewed it as politically lunatic—aft... remarkably different and less coherent. An adage for barristers is not to ask questions in court, unless they know the answers. A managerial equivalent is not to set a corporate objective without having a pretty shrewd plan for implementing it. Currently that plan is lacking.
